We are a mainstream school with a strong inclusive ethos based on our Trust vision that ANY young person from ANY background deserves an EQUAL chance to be successful in whatever they choose to do. We strive to ensure that all students achieve their potential personally, socially, emotionally and academically in all areas of the curriculum. This document is intended to give you information regarding the ways in which we ensure we support all our students, including those with SEND, in order that they realise their full potential. It may not list every skill, resource and technique we employ to achieve this as these are continually developed and used to modify our provision to meet the changing requirements of our students.

Information about:	How we do it at The Newbridge School:
1. The range of special educational needs for which provision is made at the school.	We are a mainstream school, we aspire for all of our students to achieve their potential, including those with SEND. Students are identified as SEND when their progress has significantly slowed or stopped (this covers both academic and holistic development) and the interventions and/or resources based on Quality First Teaching that we normally put in place do not enable improvement. A student may also be classed as SEND where there are external agencies involved with the child such as Autism Outreach; ADHD solutions; CAMHS or Speech and Language services. We use student passports to help support their development and accelerate progress. Typically, the students with SEND in our school have difficulties with Speech and Language, learning generally (especially reading and/ or writing), social or emotional development, and sensory difficulties with sight and/ or hearing. We have a number of students diagnosed with Autism, ADHD and Dyslexia.

2. The school's policies for the identification and assessment of students with special educational needs.

Our teachers closely monitor the progress made by all students and ask advice from the SENDCo as soon as they have concerns about any student. We have close links with our feeder primary schools and this helps us to understand the needs of SEND students before they arrive. We use Key Stage 2 teacher assessment and baseline testing to identify which students will require SEND support. The SENDCo can also help teachers to plan activities such as small group work or special programmes to help the students. If these activities don't help the student to make better progress the SENDCo might suggest other programmes or temporary additional support, or ask for advice or assessment from an external specialist service. If the student still does not make improved progress, the SENDCo, tutor or subject teacher will meet with parents/carers and student and together agree what additional support will be put in place.

We will inform all parents if your child is added onto the SEND register. We will also inform you if we feel your child has made necessary progress and no longer needs to remain on the SEND register.

The school will apply to the Joint Council of Qualifications for access arrangements at Key Stage 4 where there is a history of need e.g. access arrangements were in place in the primary school and once an Access Arrangements Assessor has completed necessary testing.

We will inform parents if the JCQ has agreed an exam concession. We will ask you to encourage your child to use this concession by discussing it with them at home.

	As soon as your child's SEND has been identified we will contact you and invite you to come into school to discuss plans to help him or her make better progress.
3. The school's policies for making provision for students with special educational needs whether or not students have an EHCP, including:	Our policies on SEND and access provide information about how we make provision for all students with SEND. These policies are available to view on the school's website.
a) How the school evaluates the effectiveness of its provision for such students;	We regularly review data for all students and the impact of interventions is measured and evaluated. Subsequent interventions will then be put in place if needed. The SENDCo and the Senior Leadership Team will assess and review the progress of all students with SEND at key data points in the year. This includes academic progress, attendance, behaviour, readiness for learning and self-esteem. The outcomes of these reviews will inform future planning for students and can form part of review meetings with parents.
b) The school's arrangements for assessing and reviewing the progress of students with special educational needs;	An Education, Health and Care Plan review and/or transfer review will take place during the academic year. Key professionals involved in the plan will be invited to attend. Parents are central to the planning and intended outcomes of the plan. The SENDCo will attend transfer reviews for students in Year 6 who have identified The Newbridge School as their next destination school. We will invite post-16 providers to transfer reviews for students in Year 11 where possible. Parents are welcome to bring a person to support them, for example a family member/ friend or parent partnership representative. However,

	you do not need to wait for these meetings if there is a concern, a meeting can be arranged with key staff to discuss concerns. All students on the SEND register have a Pupil Passport on Beehive which is reviewed and updated when necessary. This is done with the involvement of parent, student and SENDCo.
c) The school's approach to teaching students with special educational needs;	As a school, we have the highest possible expectations of your child and all students in their class. All teaching is based on building on what students already know, can do and can understand. Teachers are expected to personalise learning, scaffold and differentiate work to ensure that all students are able to access the curriculum and are fully involved in learning in class. We have an ambitious curriculum and want to ensure all students can access this. This may involve things like using more practical learning or providing different resources adapted for your child, including ICT. The teacher will also put in place specific strategies (which may be suggested by the SENDCo or specialists from outside agencies) to enable your child to access the learning tasks.
d) How the school adapts the curriculum and learning environment for students with special educational needs;	Teachers regularly check and report on student progress. If there are gaps in understanding and/or learning, teachers will identify what extra support is necessary to close the gap in progress between individual students and other students of the same age. Interventions might include small group sessions such as Direct Instruction, That Reading Thing or 1:1 coaching for students. Intervention sessions will identify specific targets for improvement. These interventions may be led by either a teacher or a trained Learning Support Assistant. The interventions will be monitored so that the impact and effectiveness can be tracked.

	The Tutor, Head of Year or SENDCo can provide information about what individual year groups are learning and how students are being helped to make better progress. There is more information about the school curriculum on our website.
e) Additional support for learning that is available to students with special educational needs;	Support is given to students in a variety of innovative ways, ranging from access to Learning Support Assistants in lessons, to peer mentors and external agency liaison. These external agencies typically include Autism Outreach; Visual Impairment of Hearing Impairment services; Educational Psychology, ADHD Solutions and Inclusion. As part of our provision, we offer Direct Instruction to Year 7 and 8 for both literacy and numeracy. We deliver reading groups using Reciprocal Reading for those students that require additional support. At Key Stage 4 the curriculum is personalised as required. Alternative Provisions may also be consulted when students are struggling to access the mainstream curriculum as a result of behaviour or social and emotional needs. Parents/ carers will be involved in decision making about alternative curriculum pathways.
f) Activities that are available for students with special educational needs in addition to those available in accordance with the curriculum	Students with SEND are fully included in our extensive enrichment programme. This includes a social skills and communication group at lunchtime. Where adjustments or specialist risk assessments are needed for a student to access an activity, the SENDCo or other relevant staff member will involve parents/ carers. This includes trips and visits.
g) Support that is available for improving the emotional and social development of students with special educational needs.	We have a range of programmes within school to support the emotional and social development of students. We do respond to the needs of the individual, tailoring an individual programme of support if needed. We utilise many agencies for support if we need expertise

	beyond our own staff. We also use external providers such as the KISP and ENSTRUCT to provide bespoke group work programmes concentrating on areas such as confidence, resilience and mentoring. We have pastoral support staff who are available throughout the school day to help students who require support. There is a school counsellor available for appointments. All students access a tutor programme and complete Personal Development each week. The school also has access to support and training through previously mentioned outside agencies.

Therefore, the training of all adults in the school is paramount to the success of all learners. Regular and appropriate staff training takes place, both of a generic and child-specific nature. Whole staff training shares knowledge, expertise and experience in order to gain a consistent approach to supporting SEND learners.
